But it should be said that something is set out mystically here, and gold, frankincense, and myrrh are referred more to those three things which we ought to offer, namely faith, action, and contemplation.

As regards faith, in two ways: first as regards those things which come together in Christ. Clearly, the royal dignity; a king will reign, and he will be wise (Jer 23:5); and so in tribute they offered gold. The greatness of the priesthood; and so they offered frankincense in sacrifice. The mortality of a man; and so they offered myrrh. Similarly, as regards the faith of the Trinity, because the persons of the Trinity are indicated in us.

Second, they can be referred to our action. For wisdom can be indicated through gold; if you . . . will dig for her as for a treasure: then you will understand the fear of the Lord (Prov 2:4). Through frankincense, devoted prayer; let my prayer be directed as incense in thy sight; the lifting up of my hands, as evening sacrifice (Ps 140:2). Through myrrh, the mortification of the body: mortify therefore your members which are upon the earth (Col 3:5); my hands dropped with myrrh (Song 5:5).

And as regards contemplation, by these three can be signified the three senses of Sacred Scripture, namely the literal sense, under which are comprehended the allegorical, the anagogical, and the moral; or the three parts of philosophy, namely moral, logic, and natural; for we ought to use all these for the service of God.

CONSECRATION OF THE FAMILY TO THE HOLY FAMILY

O Jesus, our most loving Redeemer, Who didst come into the world to enlighten it by Thy teaching and by Thy example, and Who didst will to pass the greater part of Thy mortal life in the poor cottage at Nazareth, in humble subjection to Mary and Joseph, thus sanctifying that Family which was to be the model of all Christian families; graciously receive this family which dedicates and consecrates itself to Thee this day. Do Thou protect us, do Thou watch over us! Do Thou bestow upon us Thy holy fear, peace, concord, and Christian love; that so, by the imitation of Thy family as our pattern and model, we may each and all obtain everlasting happiness.

O Mary, loving Mother of Jesus and our Mother, by thy gracious intercession make this humble dedication acceptable to Jesus and obtain for us His graces and blessings.

Saint Joseph, holy guardian of Jesus and Mary, assist us by thy prayers in all our spiritual and temporal necessities; so that, with Mary and with thee, we may for all eternity bless and thank our Divine Redeemer, Jesus.
Amen.

Consecration of the Sick to Mary: O kind and good Mother, whose own soul was pierced by the sword of sorrow, look upon us while, in our sickness, we arraign ourselves beside Thee on the Calvary where Jesus hangs. Dowered with the high grace of suffering, and hopeful of fulfilling in our own flesh what is wanting in our sharing of Christ's passion, on behalf of His Mystical Body, the Church, we consecrate to Thee ourselves and our pain. We pray that Thee will place them on that Altar of the Cross to which Jesus is affixed. May they be little victims of propitiation for our salvation, for the salvation of all peoples. O Mother of Sorrows, accept this consecration. Strengthen our hopeful hearts, that as partakers of Christ's sufferings we may also share in his comfort now and for evermore. Amen.
