DOM GUERANGER ON THE LAST JUDGMENT:

But chiefest joy of the redeemed on that great Day will be to assist at the glorification of their most dear Lord by the manifestation of the power which was given to Him over all flesh. It is to be then, O Emmanuel! that, crushing the heads of kings and making Thine enemies Thy footstool, Thou wilt be shown as the one Ruler of all nations. It is to be then that heaven and earth and hell will bow their knee before that Son of Man Who heretofore appeared on earth as a slave, and was judged and condemned and put to death between two thieves; it is to be then, dear Jesus, that Thou wilt judge the unjust judges, to whom, even in the midst of all the humiliations they put on Thee, Thou didst foretell this Thy Coming on the clouds of heaven. And when, after the irrevocable sentence has been passed, the wicked shall go to everlasting torments and the just to life eternal, thy Apostle tells us that having conquered Thine enemies and been proclaimed undisputed King, Thou wilt consign to Thine eternal Father this Thy Kingdom won over death; it will be the perfect homage of Thee, the Head, and of all Thy faithful members. God will thus be all in all. It will be the perfect accomplishment of that sublime prayer Thou taughtest mankind to make, which they daily offer up to the Father Who is in heaven, and say to Him: Hallowed be Thy name! Thy Kingdom come! Thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven! O blissfully peaceful Day, when blasphemy is to cease, and when this poor earth of ours, cleansed by fire from the filth of sin, shall be turned into a new paradise! Where, then, is the Christian, who would not thrill with emotion at the thought of that last of all the days of time, which is to usher in beautiful Eternity? Who would not despise the agonies of his own last hour, when he reflects that those sufferings have really only one meaning in them—that is, as the Gospel words it, that the Son of Man is nigh even at the very doors!

Consecration of the Sick to Mary: O kind and good Mother, whose own soul was pierced by the sword of sorrow, look upon us while, in our sickness, we arraign ourselves beside Thee on the Calvary where Jesus hangs. Dowered with the high grace of suffering, and hopeful of fulfilling in our own flesh what is wanting in our sharing of Christ's passion, on behalf of His Mystical Body, the Church, we consecrate to Thee ourselves and our pain. We pray that Thou will place them on that Altar of the Cross to which Jesus is affixed. May they be little victims of propitiation for our salvation, for the salvation of all peoples. O Mother of Sorrows, accept this consecration. Strengthen our hopeful hearts, that as partakers of Christ's sufferings we may also share in his comfort now and for evermore. Amen.
