AUGUSTINE: The St. Hildegard of Bingen Choir is currently recruiting new singers. If you are 18 or older, like to sing, have good pitch, and would like to join this noble and beautiful service, please speak to Dr. Iván Csanaky after High Mass, e-mail sanladislao@gmail.com, or leave a message at 417-429-1689. (Parishioners who are 16 or 17 years old can join the choir if their parent or older sibling is a member of the choir.)

FROM ST. ROBERT BELLARMINE: Our good Lord is not avaricious of His graces, if only we approach the throne of grace with faith and confidence, with a true and sincere but not a false heart. He who desireth to have us co-heirs in the kingdom of His Father, will certainly not disdain to have us co-heirs in the love of His Mother. Nor will the most benign Virgin herself take it amiss to have a countless number of children, since she hath an heart capable of embracing all of us, and ardently desireth that not even one of those souls should perish whom her divine Son redeemed with His precious Blood, and His still more precious death. And so let us approach with confidence the throne of the grace of Christ, and with tears let us humbly beg of Him to say to His Mother for each of us: Behold thy son; and to each one of us concerning His Mother: Behold thy Mother.

Consecration of the Sick to Mary: O kind and good Mother, whose own soul was pierced by the sword of sorrow, look upon us while, in our sickness, we arraign ourselves beside Thee on the Calvary where Jesus hangs. Dowered with the high grace of suffering, and hopeful of fulfilling in our own flesh what is wanting in our sharing of Christ's passion, on behalf of His Mystical Body, the Church, we consecrate to Thee ourselves and our pain. We pray that Thou will place them on that Altar of the Cross to which Jesus is affixed. May they be little victims of propitiation for our salvation, for the salvation of all peoples. O Mother of Sorrows, accept this consecration. Strengthen our hopeful hearts, that as partakers of Christ's sufferings we may also share in his comfort now and for evermore. Amen.
