ALTAR & ROSARY SOCIETY FUNDRAISER: Sunday, October 9, after all Masses the women of the ARS will serve breakfast: egg and sausage burritos, cinnamon rolls and vanilla yogurt with blueberries. Along with breakfast, baked goods and religious items will be on sale. Breakfast will be all you can eat for $25.00 per family or $10.00 per person. Please come and support ARS. The money raised goes towards items needed on the altar such as flowers, linens, candles etc. The ARS offers funeral receptions, and buys the meat and rolls for various parish functions such as the summer picnic and SRPD dinner each November. Donations of lightly used religious goods will be accepted until the end of the month of September.

THE CHOIR IS LOOKING FOR NEW SINGERS: "HE WHO SINGS WELL, PRAYS TWICE."- ST. AUGUSTINE: The St. Hildegard of Bingen Choir is currently recruiting tenors and basses. If you are 18 or older, like to sing, have good pitch, and would like to join this noble and beautiful service, please speak to Dr. Iván Csanaky after High Mass, e-mail sanladislao@gmail.com, or leave a message at 417-429-1689. (Parishioners who are 16 or 17 years old can join the choir if their parent or older sibling is a member of the choir.)

DOM GUERANGER ON THE SEPTEMBER EMBER DAYS: The beginnings of the Winter, Spring, and Autumn quarters were sanctified by abstinence and fasting, and each of them, in turn, has witnessed heaven's blessing falling upon their respective three months; and now, Autumn is harvesting the fruits, which divine mercy, appeased by the satisfactions made by sinful man, has vouchsafed to bring forth from the bosom of the earth, notwithstanding the curse that still hangs over her. The precious seed of wheat, on which man's life mainly depends, was confided to the soil in the season of the yearly frosts, and with the first fine days, peeped above the ground; at the approach of glorious Easter, it carpeted our fields with its velvet of green, making them ready to share in the universal joy of Jesus' resurrection; then, turning into a lovely image of what our souls ought to have been in the season of Pentecost, its stem grew up under the action of the hot sun; the golden ear promised a hundred-fold to its master; the harvest made the reapers glad; and now that September has come, it calls on man to fix his heart on that good God, who gave him all this store. Let him not think of saying, as that rich man of the Gospel did, after a plentiful harvest of fruits: My soul! thou hast much goods laid up for many years! take thy rest! eat! drink! make good cheer! And God said to that man: Thou fool! this night, do they require thy soul of thee! and whose shall those things be, which thou hast provided? Surely, there is too much of the Christian among us to allow us to be senseless in that way. If we would be truly rich with God, if we would draw down his blessing on the preservation, as well as on the production, of the fruits of the earth, let us, at the beginning of this last quarter of the year, have recourse to those penitential exercises, whose beneficial effects we have always experienced in the past.

Consecration of the Sick to Mary: O kind and good Mother, whose own soul was pierced by the sword of sorrow, look upon us while, in our sickness, we arraign ourselves beside Thee on the Calvary where Jesus hangs. Dowered with the high grace of suffering, and hopeful of fulfilling in our own flesh what is wanting in our sharing of Christ's passion, on behalf of His Mystical Body, the Church, we consecrate to Thee ourselves and our pain. We pray that Thou will place them on that Altar of the Cross to which Jesus is affixed. May they be little victims of propitiation for our salvation, for the salvation of all peoples. O Mother of Sorrows, accept this consecration. Strengthen our hopeful hearts, that as partakers of Christ's sufferings we may also share in his comfort now and for evermore. Amen.
