BISHOP CHALLONER ON PREPARATION FOR PENTECOST:

Consider first, that when we celebrate the Christian solemnities we ought not only to honour the mysteries we commemorate, and give praise and glory to the Author of all good for His benefits to His church; but also to enter into the spirit of the solemnity by aiming as much as possible at the dispositions of soul which are suitable to the mysteries we celebrate. And thus when we are preparing to keep the solemn feast of Pentecost, the day when the Holy Ghost came down upon the first Christians, it ought to be the great subject of our devotion to prepare our souls for the Holy Ghost, that so we may be also favoured with His visit at this holy time, and may plentifully partake of His gifts and graces. O my soul, do thou aspire after this happiness (the greatest of any thou canst enjoy on this side of eternity), to have the Holy Ghost, the Spirit of the living God, to come to thee, to take full possession of thy interior, and to abide forever with thee. O spare no pains in preparing a proper lodging for Him.

Consider that the great means to bring the Holy Ghost into our souls is to invite Him thither by ardent desires and fervent prayer. Thus the apostles obtained Him, and the word of God in many places assures us that this is the way for our obtaining all good, 'that our heavenly Father will give His good Spirit to all that ask Him' (Luke xi. 13), and that an ardent desire, a perfect hunger and thirst after this heavenly Spirit, the fountain of all justice, are the means by which to be filled both with him and his gifts. 'I wished,' says the wise man (Wisdom vii. 7), 'and understanding was given me; and I called upon God, and the Spirit of wisdom came upon me.' O my soul, see thou seek Him in this manner by fervent desires and prayer, but let it be with thy whole heart. In finding Him thou wilt find all good, for He is the overflowing source of all good; without Him thou art nothing but misery and sin. O come, divine Spirit, to my soul, that longs after Thee, and bring with Thee all Thy heavenly treasures. O do Thou prepare Thyself a proper lodging in my heart, and then take full possession of it for time and eternity.

Consecration of the Sick to Mary: O kind and good Mother, whose own soul was pierced by the sword of sorrow, look upon us while, in our sickness, we arraign ourselves beside Thee on the Calvary where Jesus hangs. Dowered with the high grace of suffering, and hopeful of fulfilling in our own flesh what is wanting in our sharing of Christ's passion, on behalf of His Mystical Body, the Church, we consecrate to Thee ourselves and our pain. We pray that Thou will place them on that Altar of the Cross to which Jesus is affixed. May they be little victims of propitiation for our salvation, for the salvation of all peoples. O Mother of Sorrows, accept this consecration. Strengthen our hopeful hearts, that as partakers of Christ's sufferings we may also share in his comfort now and for evermore. Amen.
