FR. LEONARD GOFFINE ON TODAY'S GOSPEL:

"At Thy word I will let down the net." Luke 5:5

In what does a good intention consist? In this: that whatever a man does or forsakes, he should, like Peter when he was fishing, do and forsake all in the name of God, and for God's sake.

There are many men who seem to be born, by the particular providence of God, to misery, since they are obliged to spend their lives in hard labor, in constant sickness, or in great poverty, without being able with all their efforts to better their condition. How, then, must they act to secure something better in the world to come? They must, like the Apostles and saints, let down their nets in the name of Jesus; that is, whatever they do or suffer, must be done or suffered in the name of God, with obedience and resignation to His will, and in the hope of receiving His blessing and an eternal reward. For He rewards every step we take for His sake, and even the cup of cold water that we give to the poor in His name; and thus a good intention makes, as it were, God our debtor, transmutes lead into gold, and converts the trifling acts of daily life into treasures of merit.

Consecration of the Sick to Mary: O kind and good Mother, whose own soul was pierced by the sword of sorrow, look upon us while, in our sickness, we arraign ourselves beside Thee on the Calvary where Jesus hangs. Dowered with the high grace of suffering, and hopeful of fulfilling in our own flesh what is wanting in our sharing of Christ's passion, on behalf of His Mystical Body, the Church, we consecrate to Thee ourselves and our pain. We pray that Thou will place them on that Altar of the Cross to which Jesus is affixed. May they be little victims of propitiation for our salvation, for the salvation of all peoples. O Mother of Sorrows, accept this consecration. Strengthen our hopeful hearts, that as partakers of Christ's sufferings we may also share in his comfort now and for evermore. Amen.
