TODAY—FEAST OF ST. ROSE PHILIPPINE DUCHESNE: November 17 is the proper feast day of our titular, St. Rose Philippine Duchesne, but we also have the privilege of celebrating her feast on one of the adjacent Sundays. We will do this today. Her Mass is taken from the common Mass texts for a “virgin, non-martyr” with her own proper orations. After each Mass there will be an opportunity for venerating her relic and there will be a blessing with the relic for all present.

After the 11:30am Mass we will have a potluck dinner. The Altar and Rosary Society will provide the meat, rolls and cake. If your last name begins with A-E bring a veggie dish (warm or cold), F-K Potato dish (hot or cold), L-R Fruit dish (plain fruit or fruit salad) and S-Z Salad or Dessert (we will provide a few cakes).

SEVEN SISTERS APOSTOLATE: We all need prayer. Our priests need prayer too. A group was started at the parish to offer Holy Hours for the pastor and a group is now being formed for our parochial vicar, Fr. Latimer. It is a simple structure designed by the Seven Sisters Apostolate to offer one Holy Hour a week. On your designated day, you choose the hour that works best for you. All we need are seven women to get started. If you want to learn more, contact Jenifer Barry (913-754-6264 or 7sistersapostolatejkb@gmail.com).

POPE JOHN PAUL II TO PILGRIMS WHO CAME TO ROME FOR THE CANONIZATION OF ST. ROSE PHILIPPINE DUCHESNE (1988): The canonization of Rose Philippine Duchesne is a special moment in the history of the Church, a time when we see more clearly the loving Providence of God guiding the course of human events, bringing about in His inscrutable ways the victory of love over sin and death. It is one of those moments when we gladly declare in the words of Saint Paul: “Glory be to Him Whose power, working in us, can do infinitely more than we can ask or imagine, glory be to Him from generation to generation in the Church and in Christ Jesus for ever and ever” (Eph. 3, 20-21).

Saint Rose Philippine was a woman of lively faith and constant prayer, a woman full of zeal for the missionary needs of the Church. Her love, which knew no limits, was always eager to reach out to those in need in countries and cultures different from her own. By the time she got to her long-awaited mission among the American Indians, she could write to Saint Madeleine Sophie Barat that “to go to teach the Indian children is a grace – a gift of God, not just a service”. And her enthusiasm never wavered. Even beyond the age of seventy she was still a valiant pioneer of the Gospel, traveling across the plains of Missouri and Kansas in North America to establish a school for girls of the Potawatomi Indian Tribe.

How does one account for such untiring zeal, such constant dedication to the Church’s missionary efforts? Surely, it could only be the result of a heart on fire with love of God, a heart that was always in loving harmony with the Sacred Heart of Jesus the Lord.

Consecration of the Sick to Mary: O kind and good Mother, whose own soul was pierced by the sword of sorrow, look upon us while, in our sickness, we arraign ourselves beside Thee on the Calvary where Jesus hangs. Dowered with the high grace of suffering, and hopeful of fulfilling in our own flesh what is wanting in our sharing of Christ's passion, on behalf of His Mystical Body, the Church, we consecrate to Thee ourselves and our pain. We pray that Thou will place them on that Altar of the Cross to which Jesus is affixed. May they be little victims of propitiation for our salvation, for the salvation of all peoples. O Mother of Sorrows, accept this consecration. Strengthen our hopeful hearts, that as partakers of Christ's sufferings we may also share in his comfort now and for evermore. Amen.
