THE CATECHISM OF PERSEVERANCE ON THE THIRD WEEK OF LENT:

On the third Sunday of Lent, the Church gives us an instruction by reminding us that the essential act of penance is a good confession. The Gospel of the third Sunday is intended to make us avoid the danger, unfortunately too common, of failing in sincerity in the avowal of our faults. It represents to us, under the figure of a possessed deaf-mute, the sad condition of a sinner whose mouth is no longer open to prayer or to confession, nor his ears to the truth.

The perfect cleanness which our soul acquires in the salutary bath, figured by the cure of Naaman [Monday]; the infinite goodness of the Savior towards the most abandoned souls, as shown in the examples of the Samaritan woman [Friday] and the adulteress [Saturday]: behold the subjects of the third week! Do you know anything more proper to bring into a guilty heart that confidence which is so necessary for man, terrified at the thought of his Judge, and overwhelmed with shame at the sight of his iniquities?

Consecration of the Sick to Mary: O kind and good Mother, whose own soul was pierced by the sword of sorrow, look upon us while, in our sickness, we arraign ourselves beside Thee on the Calvary where Jesus hangs. Dowered with the high grace of suffering, and hopeful of fulfilling in our own flesh what is wanting in our sharing of Christ's passion, on behalf of His Mystical Body, the Church, we consecrate to Thee ourselves and our pain. We pray that Thou will place them on that Altar of the Cross to which Jesus is affixed. May they be little victims of propitiation for our salvation, for the salvation of all peoples. O Mother of Sorrows, accept this consecration. Strengthen our hopeful hearts, that as partakers of Christ's sufferings we may also share in his comfort now and for evermore. Amen.
