FROM BLESSED ILDEFONSO SCHUSTER (1930): In the Lesson (Acts 2: 1-11) is described the miraculous descent of the Holy Ghost upon the Apostles. We should carefully note the circumstances in which it took place. The eleven disciples had prepared themselves by a retreat of ten days in company with and under the motherly care of the Blessed Virgin. They lived together in great peace and harmony, under the authority and rule of Peter. About the third hour of the day they were in prayer, when the Holy Ghost descended upon them in the form of tongues of fire. All the things should teach us a spirit of recollection, tender devotion to the Blessed Virgin, a great love of peace and brotherly concord, even to the sacrificing of our own too susceptible personality, and an untiring zeal for prayer. Such are the best conditions for obtaining the gift of the love of God; and this is demanded of us too, so that through the Holy Ghost we may become we may become apostles to the benefit of our fellow men.

Consecration of the Sick to Mary: O kind and good Mother, whose own soul was pierced by the sword of sorrow, look upon us while, in our sickness, we arraign ourselves beside Thee on the Calvary where Jesus hangs. Dowered with the high grace of suffering, and hopeful of fulfilling in our own flesh what is wanting in our sharing of Christ's passion, on behalf of His Mystical Body, the Church, we consecrate to Thee ourselves and our pain. We pray that Thou will place them on that Altar of the Cross to which Jesus is affixed. May they be little victims of propitiation for our salvation, for the salvation of all peoples. O Mother of Sorrows, accept this consecration. Strengthen our hopeful hearts, that as partakers of Christ's sufferings we may also share in his comfort now and for evermore. Amen.
