CHOIR LOOKING FOR SINGERS: Our parish choir, St. Hildegard of Bingen Choir, is recruiting new members, primarily for the soprano and alto sections. Both new and former members are welcome. Previous choir experience or the ability to read chant or modern notation is not required, though it is an advantage. If you are 18 or older, enjoy singing, have good pitch, and would like to join this noble and beautiful service, please speak to Dr. Iván Csanaky after High Mass or email sanladislao@gmail.com. Parishioners age 16-17 may join if their parent or older sibling is a member of the choir.

SOCCER: There will be a soccer match with the men of Maple Hill on the afternoon of Sunday, May 17. There will be a junior team (age 12-16) and an adult team (17 and older). Contact Philip Henderson if interested: philip2003henderson@gmail.com or (816) 274-1061

ST. JOSEPH PARTY: Saturday, March 21—More details to come.

ORDINATIONS: Please remember the seminarians from our parish, Alex Brown and Joseph Specht, in your prayers as they continue their studies in Nebraska. Alex will be ordained a subdeacon on March 7 and a deacon on March 21.

BEATITUDES FROM THE HEARTLAND: The archdiocese has developed a four-session program for the laity, in small groups, to consider and discuss the Beatitudes in light of recent papal documents and their application for our lives and our parishes. Fr. McDonald, pastor of Holy Angels in Basehor, has generously allowed us to join with his parish for those who wish to participate. They have groups meeting at their parish on Thursdays (2/26 through 3/19) at 1pm and 7:30pm. You must contact Mary Tunink at Holy Angels by email if you wish to take part: mtuninkholyangels@gmail.com.

FROM BL. ILDEFONSO SCHUSTER ON TODAY'S GOSPEL: The Fathers of the Church, and notably St Gregory, in a famous homily delivered on this day to the people assembled at the Lateran, ask why Christ consented to be tempted by Satan, and remark that He did so in order to partake of the infirmity of our nature, and in that nature to defeat and humble the tempter on our behalf and to obtain for us the grace of overcoming our temptations by the merits of His victory. Our Lord also wished to teach us that there is no sin in being tempted, but only in giving way to the tempter. The temptations of Christ were furthermore entirely external, as His sacred humanity could not possibly take pleasure in them, far less consent to them.
The faithful should contemplate with special devotion this mystery of Christ tempted in the desert, for there is no other which shows more clearly how the divine Providence makes even the wiles of the devil serve to our sanctification by using temptation as a crucible in which to purify our virtue, and by causing it to be an occasion of greater grace and profit to the soul in its spiritual life.

Consecration of the Sick to Mary: O kind and good Mother, whose own soul was pierced by the sword of sorrow, look upon us while, in our sickness, we arraign ourselves beside Thee on the Calvary where Jesus hangs. Dowered with the high grace of suffering, and hopeful of fulfilling in our own flesh what is wanting in our sharing of Christ's passion, on behalf of His Mystical Body, the Church, we consecrate to Thee ourselves and our pain. We pray that Thou will place them on that Altar of the Cross to which Jesus is affixed. May they be little victims of propitiation for our salvation, for the salvation of all peoples. O Mother of Sorrows, accept this consecration. Strengthen our hopeful hearts, that as partakers of Christ's sufferings we may also share in his comfort now and for evermore. Amen.

The priests serving St. Rose Philippine Church are members of The Priestly Fraternity of St Peter (Fraternitas Sacerdotalis Sancti Petri - FSSP), a Society of Apostolic Life of Pontifical Right founded in 1988. The Fraternity operates seminaries in Denton, Nebraska and Wigratzbad, Germany. Presently, the FSSP has approximately 250 priestly members and more than 100 seminarians.
