BLESSED ILDEFONSO SCHUSTER ON THE GOSPEL:
The Gospel (John xx 19-31) tells us of two separate manifestations of Jesus to the Apostles: the first on the evening of Easter Day, when He instituted the sacrament of Confession, the other eight days later, when He showed his wounds to Thomas. The fact that the power of remitting sins was given to the Apostles on the day of the resurrection itself is very significant. That was a day of triumph and rejoicing: it was fitting, therefore, that on such a day the divine compassion should institute that Sacrament which takes away sorrow and mourning in this world and calls sinners to a new life of sanctity.

Jesus appeared the second time in the supper-room to confute the unbelief of Thomas, who refused to believe unless he both saw and felt the place of the wounds; and God allowed this weakness in order that the remedy which cured it might serve as a preventive against the incredulity of all future generations. There is no room for doubt concerning the resurrection of our Lord; He was seen and also touched before being believed in by those who were far from being disposed to admit its truth.

Consecration of the Sick to Mary: O kind and good Mother, whose own soul was pierced by the sword of sorrow, look upon us while, in our sickness, we arraign ourselves beside Thee on the Calvary where Jesus hangs. Dowered with the high grace of suffering, and hopeful of fulfilling in our own flesh what is wanting in our sharing of Christ's passion, on behalf of His Mystical Body, the Church, we consecrate to Thee ourselves and our pain. We pray that Thou will place them on that Altar of the Cross to which Jesus is affixed. May they be little victims of propitiation for our salvation, for the salvation of all peoples. O Mother of Sorrows, accept this consecration. Strengthen our hopeful hearts, that as partakers of Christ's sufferings we may also share in his comfort now and for evermore. Amen.
