BLESSED ILDEFONSO SCHUSTER ON TRINITY SUNDAY: The idea of a special solemnity in honour of the mystery of the most holy Trinity, the foundation of our Christian faith, is a beautiful one, and the time appointed for its celebration—at the close of the paschal cycle—is well chosen. It is natural that we should feel a desire to manifest the fulness of our gratitude to the Triune God Who has deigned to accomplish the work of our redemption with so much pity and loving kindness towards us. The eternal Father, for love of us, has been pleased to give up His only begotten Son to be the oblation and victim of expiation; Jesus has loved us unto the end —that is, to the point of sacrificing himself for us; the Holy Ghost has given Himself to us in so intimate a manner as to be called Donum —the Gift—because He witnesses to the love of the Father and of the Son for us.

Further, the revelation of the dogma of the Blessed Trinity is one of the mysteries which the Jews had only partly apprehended, but was not expressly revealed until the coming of the New Law. This mystery concerns the inward life of the Deity, and such secrets are not revealed to all, only to friends. The doctrine of one God in three Persons marks the most sublime height of theological science, and confers on the followers of Christ a perfection and a dignity of so high an order that it may truly be said that this dogma constitutes the honour, the glory, and the salvation of the Church. It is very fitting, therefore, that after the Holy Ghost has come to teach the faithful, throwing open to them the entire treasure of divine truth, the Christian family should turn to the contemplation and adoration of the most holy Trinity, in spirit and in truth, thus fulfilling the chief and essential object of the incarnation of the Saviour and the redemption of the world.

Consecration of the Sick to Mary: O kind and good Mother, whose own soul was pierced by the sword of sorrow, look upon us while, in our sickness, we arraign ourselves beside Thee on the Calvary where Jesus hangs. Dowered with the high grace of suffering, and hopeful of fulfilling in our own flesh what is wanting in our sharing of Christ's passion, on behalf of His Mystical Body, the Church, we consecrate to Thee ourselves and our pain. We pray that Thou will place them on that Altar of the Cross to which Jesus is affixed. May they be little victims of propitiation for our salvation, for the salvation of all peoples. O Mother of Sorrows, accept this consecration. Strengthen our hopeful hearts, that as partakers of Christ's sufferings we may also share in his comfort now and for evermore. Amen.

The priests serving St. Rose Philippine Church are members of The Priestly Fraternity of St Peter (Fraternitas Sacerdotalis Sancti Petri - FSSP), a Society of Apostolic Life of Pontifical Right founded in 1988. The Fraternity operates seminaries in Denton, Nebraska and Wigratzbad, Germany. Presently, the FSSP has approximately 250 priestly members and more than 100 seminarians.
