BLESSED ILDEFONSO SCHUSTER ON TODAY'S EPISTLE:
St Paul warns us not to imitate the Jews in the various sins committed by them after they came out of Egypt: sensual desires, idolatry, fornication, apostasy, and discontent. Their history should be a lesson to us. To be tempted is common to all men; God not only upholds us by His grace, but makes the temptation itself turn to our spiritual advantage. How little do we realize this truth, and how many souls lose their serenity of mind under temptation! They curse their wretchedness, forgetting that the Holy Ghost through the mouth of St James calls those blessed who are exposed to trial. God is never nearer to us than in times of temptation.

Consecration of the Sick to Mary: O kind and good Mother, whose own soul was pierced by the sword of sorrow, look upon us while, in our sickness, we arraign ourselves beside Thee on the Calvary where Jesus hangs. Dowered with the high grace of suffering, and hopeful of fulfilling in our own flesh what is wanting in our sharing of Christ's passion, on behalf of His Mystical Body, the Church, we consecrate to Thee ourselves and our pain. We pray that Thou will place them on that Altar of the Cross to which Jesus is affixed. May they be little victims of propitiation for our salvation, for the salvation of all peoples. O Mother of Sorrows, accept this consecration. Strengthen our hopeful hearts, that as partakers of Christ's sufferings we may also share in his comfort now and for evermore. Amen.
