BISHOP RICHARD RYAN ON JULY, THE MONTH OF THE MOST PRECIOUS BLOOD (1939):
One of the many thoughts that tortured the souls of Our Lord during His Sacred Passion was the foreknowledge that His Precious Blood would be shed in vain for many. This disastrous truth was openly announced to Him shortly after His Birth: "Behold this Child is set up for the ruin as well as for the resurrection of many in Israel." How little men think of the Passion! No wonder that the sad complaint, "What profit is there in my blood?" (Ps 29:10) is put on the lips of Him Who shed all His Blood for men. The all-important question for us is: "Will the Precious Blood be shed for us in vain?" Our Lord would have all men to be saved and come to the knowledge of the truth. But He does not force man's free will. He pleads, but does not compel. Man's cooperation is necessary for his salvation. We all hope for mercy from His Redeeming Blood, but we must take the means to make that hope effective for our salvation. As Our Lord poured out the last drop of His Blood on Calvary, what a vision met His gaze! Every soul that would not profit by His Blood stood out clearly and distinctly before Him. Let us ask ourselves here today whether we are of that number. Let us ask Him that His Blood may not have been shed in vain. Let us keep our souls signed and sealed by it. It will keep us from our mortal enemy, sin. It will plead forgiveness for our sins of frailty and weakness. It will be our sure and safe passport to our homeland.

Consecration of the Sick to Mary: O kind and good Mother, whose own soul was pierced by the sword of sorrow, look upon us while, in our sickness, we arraign ourselves beside Thee on the Calvary where Jesus hangs. Dowered with the high grace of suffering, and hopeful of fulfilling in our own flesh what is wanting in our sharing of Christ's passion, on behalf of His Mystical Body, the Church, we consecrate to Thee ourselves and our pain. We pray that Thee will place them on that Altar of the Cross to which Jesus is affixed. May they be little victims of propitiation for our salvation, for the salvation of all peoples. O Mother of Sorrows, accept this consecration. Strengthen our hopeful hearts, that as partakers of Christ's sufferings we may also share in his comfort now and for evermore. Amen.
